We will start the new year off with a friendship building activity for networking support. Do you like to work with your hands, create and build, beat with a hammer or mallet, sand, stain and paint? Whether you do or not, time working with your creative mind and hands while connecting to others who are experiencing some of the same things you are while raising children with bleeding disorders or living yourself with a bleeding disorder is important. We believe that providing this time for networking support and sharing experiences is valuable, and we welcome you to join us. You don't need to bring anything but yourself. Travel grants are available for those driving more than 60 miles to attend.

All supplies, food and drink are provided and a cool DIY workshop project is yours to create and take home. Enjoy a conversation with our Common Factors Speaker as we begin to share experiences that can help with living with bleeding disorders within your family, or personally yourself! Limited space is available so don't wait to register.

Spend some time together! Registration opens January 1st at BDA-SC.org - Deadline to register is January 14th.

COVID Caveat: For this event we will be masking and practicing social distancing. If the event is canceled, the Chapter will call you and the event will be rescheduled for February or March.

Pizza, Wings, and Drinks Provided!
