Part II Declaration and Signature Authorization of Officer or Person Subject to Tax

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that  I am an officer of the above entity or  I am a person subject to tax with respect to (name of entity) _____, (EIN) _____ and that I have examined a copy of the 2023 electronic return and accompanying schedules and statements, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete. I further declare that the amount in Part I above is the amount shown on the copy of the electronic return. I consent to allow my intermediate service provider, transmitter, or electronic return originator (ERO) to send the return to the IRS and to receive from the IRS (a) an acknowledgement of receipt or reason for rejection of the transmission, (b) the reason for any delay in processing the return or refund, and (c) the date of any refund. If applicable, I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of the federal taxes owed on this return, and the financial institution to debit the entry to this account. To revoke a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4537 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment. I have selected a personal identification number (PIN) as my signature for the electronic return and, if applicable, the consent to electronic funds withdrawal.

PIN: check one box only

I authorize Lane Financial Services to enter my PIN 34564 as my signature

Check if your organization is covered by the General Rule or a Special Rule.

Note: Only a section 501(c)(7), (8), or (10) organization can check boxes for both the General Rule and a Special Rule. See instructions.

General Rule

[ ] For an organization filing Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-PF that received, during the year, contributions totaling $5,000 or more (in money or property) from any one contributor. Complete Parts I and II. See instructions for determining a contributor's total contributions.

Special Rules

[X] For an organization described in section 501(c)(3) filing Form 990 or 990-EZ that met the 33-1/3% support test of the regulations under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi), that checked Schedule A (Form 990), Part II, line 13, 16a, or 16b, and that received from any one contributor, during the year, total contributions of the greater of (1) $5,000; or (2) 2% of the amount on (i) Form 990, Part VIII, line 1h; or (ii) Form 990-EZ, line 1. Complete Parts I and II.

[ ] For an organization described in section 501(c)(7), (8), or (10) filing Form 990 or 990-EZ that received from any one contributor, during the year, total contributions of more than $1,000 exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. Complete Parts I (entering "N/A" in column (b) instead of the contributor name and address), II, and III.

[ ] For an organization described in section 501(c)(7), (8), or (10) filing Form 990 or 990-EZ that received from any one contributor, during the year, contributions exclusively for religious, charitable, etc., purposes, but no such contributions totaled more than $1,000. If this box is checked, enter here the total contributions that were received during the year for an exclusively religious, charitable, etc., purpose. Don't complete any of the parts unless the General Rule applies to this organization because it received nonexclusively religious, charitable, etc., contributions totaling $5,000 or more during the year. $ _____

Caution: An organization that isn't covered by the General Rule and/or the Special Rules doesn't file Schedule B (Form 990), but it must answer "No" on Part IV, line 2, of its Form 990; or check the box on line H of its Form 990-EZ or on its Form 990-PF, Part I, line 2, to certify that it doesn't meet the filing requirements of Schedule B (Form 990).

BDASC Advocacy/Legislative Days in Columbia This event was attended by approximately 65 individuals; which included our members affected by bleeding disorders, healthcare providers who assist our community members with services and treatment, local and national organization with interest in assuring access to quality care and treatment, the state's Department of Health and Environmental Control, Children with Special Health Care Needs, and our Industry partners. The Chapter provides informational support to community members in regards to advocacy awareness and training, education on health care access initiatives the chapter is working on, and addresses any concerns, while educating our elected officials on living with bleeding disorders. We provided awareness support and materials to government and state agencies to help promote a greater understanding of the challenges faced by people with bleeding disorders.

BDASC 50th Annual State Meeting and Educational Conference Day This year we provide our members our 50th annual state-wide meeting and held a gala in celebration. We reported on the year's financials and accomplishments. Board of Directors were recognized, and awards were given to our community members for yearly accomplishments. In addition, the HELLO Conference, "Helping Embrace Life Learning Opportunities" provided presentations and educational programs to support all areas of living well with bleeding disorders so those affected can reach their highest potentials without boundaries. This was a two-day event open to all members of the bleeding disorders community in South Carolina, healthcare providers, and associations. The attendance was over 185, locally and nationally. Our Friday evening dinner opening event included BDASC's mission moments, awards, and a key note presentation. The event included eight educational presentations and breakouts

Par for the Clot Charity Golf Awareness Fundraiser This is our second fundraiser and a charity event which supports the Chapter's overall programs and services. The revenue raised are used to support the educational programs and services, advocacy initiatives, and national research support we provide to the Bleeding Disorders community. The charity event also serves as an awareness campaign for bleeding disorders with outreach education and shares the affects a diagnosis has on individuals and their families. We had 175 participants with volunteers and community members in participation. .

Newsletter/ Website/ E-blasts We provide a quarterly newsletter which contains information on the Chapter, national articles and education, products for treatment, research article, and community news from members within our chapter. The newsletter provides a vital source of communication for our members. Our website provides a wealth of supportive information. We provided monthly and by-monthly constant contact e-blast newsletters to over 1,800 members of the bleeding disorders community throughout the nation with up-to-date information on events and educational materials.

"STEP for Bleeding Disorders" Walk for Hemophilia and Bleeding Disorders The walk fundraiser is one of Bleeding Disorders Association of South Carolina's primary revenue sources to fund the Chapter's mission to support the programs and services of the organization. This fundraiser is open to the entire membership and general public statewide. This fitness walk helps to promote education on staying healthy for individuals with hemophilia and serves as the Chapter's public awareness campaign allowing us to reach a broader base of the general public education on bleeding disorders. We had over 265 individuals in participation coming from throughout the state of South Carolina.

Men's, Women's, Young Families, VWD, and Rare Support Groups We provide sub-group support and educational programs to all families, men, and women located in all regions of the state from different disease states. These programs foster educational support, empowerment, and friendship while living with a bleeding disorder.

"The Carolina Crew" of North and South Carolina Teen Retreat The teen retreat allowed teen's ages 13-18 years with a bleeding disorder, or who have a sibling or parent with a bleeding disorder to come together for a four-day weekend to build friendships, independence, learn self-advocacy skills and provide mentoring opportunities. Teens benefited by attending educational programs along with outdoor activities to promote friendships and build a good network and support system. Our program this year was specifically designed to provide encouragement in difficult situations which is sometimes a result of living with a bleeding disorder. The event provided this opportunity to 30 teens.

National Organizational Support Members of BDASC advocated with over 450 members of the national community at the Nation's Capital in March. Our Chapter represented the state of South Carolina in advocacy to help address continued access to care and treatment. We participated in seven meetings with our US Congressmen.

Public Awareness

Outreach Support In 2023, we supported over 60 in person educational outreach programs throughout the state; to include the Upstate, Midlands and Lowcountry. These educational events can ease the need for long distance travel for our community. Education included various topics such as scholarship assistance, camps, insurance, healthcare policies, school and job assistance, and advocacy seminars. This year we provided educational and networking support to hundreds of families. The chapter supported outreach education and awareness campaigns during the National Bleeding Disorders Awareness Month of March and supported 10 state, county, and city proclamations.

National Annual Meeting Education and Research Support As a chapter of the National Bleeding Disorders Foundation, and a member organization of Hemophilia Federation of America we encourage our community members to attend the Annual Meetings of these important national organizations. We provided direct financial assistance to 12 individuals and their families to attend national meetings this year. We supported direct financial support for research, and global financial support for initiatives of the National World Hemophilia Foundations.

Family Educational / Health Equity Summit

This three-day weekend event was available to individuals and families free of charge with direct and immediate family members who either have a bleeding disorder, are carriers of a bleeding disorder or have an immediate family member affected. It was hosted in the upstate to provide educational and supportive services, including advocacy training and awareness to our community members throughout the state. Education, supportive services, and family connections with community members was an optimum outcome of this weekend event. This year, we support a health equity summit within the event to address health inequities within the South Carolina Bleeding Disorders Community. Attendees included 38 families, approximately 165 participants, speakers, and guests. We provided an educational and networking component specifically designed for families with children ages 0-6, 7-12, and our teens 13-18. We also provided simultaneously an adult educational track for our childless adults. Exhibiting of treatment therapies and services was available throughout the event. We provided multiple sessions throughout the weekend with national educators on various bleeding disorders issues addressing their needs to include; insurance education, school and healthcare self-advocacy, treatment, research, local and national healthcare public policies updates and other related educational and health equity needs. This event was free of charge to all participants.

Winter Year-End State Meeting and Holiday Celebration The winter state-wide meeting is the organization's year-end meeting of the Chapter and the attendance was over 175 participants; adults, children, and teens. We also highlighted the chapter's accomplishments in a one-day community event with holiday festivities

Bleeding Disorders Association of South Carolina Chapter Day at Camps BDASC partnered at camp this year with the South Carolina Hemophilia Treatment Centers and the State's Department of Health and Environmental Control. Our goal is to provide a special "Chapter" day and activity event for kids with Bleeding Disorders from around the state and who are patients of the Prisma Health Midstate and Upstate. We provided travel assistance for all families that requested financial assistance with transportation to and from camp. We provided a Chapter Camp bag and an Ice Cream social event at all the summer camps in South Carolina. Kids at camp make great strides in learning self-independence and we help with mentoring positive self-help skills. We also supported the same activities for kids at Camp Courage from the Prisma Health Upstate HTC in Greenville and their family camp, "Brave Blood."

Emergency Assistance Program/Scholarships BDASC provides a financial assistance program to families and individuals affected by bleeding disorders. This year we gave aid to 68 individuals and families totaling $24,729.00. This includes providing 5 college scholarships to eligible members of the community affected by bleeding disorders.

Annual Von Willebrand Disease Educational Retreat Provided an educational and support weekend to 40 individuals and families who are affected by von Willebrand Disease. Treatment therapies education for doctors in the field we on hand to provide additional medical support and education.

Virtual Innovation Program (VIP) In response to the COVID -19 pandemic, our organization continued our initiative of 2020, our Virtual Innovation Program (VIP). The mission of the VIP program is to provide continuing education, support services, and to connect with members with the use of managed educational tools, such as I-Pads. Enrolled with the service of a Mobile Device Management we can provide virtual connections to web clips, videos, apps, and URL's, all of our
