

At Camp CoAg, our mission is to empower children & teens with bleeding disorders in a welcoming environment where clotting isn't a factor and friendship, growth and unforgettable memories are a priority. We celebrate courage, kindness & resilience. Helping every camper rise boldly into their fullest potential.

Eligibility

- Ages 5-18.
 - 18-year-olds will attend as leaders-in-training (LIT) and work side by side with counselors and staff for leadership/counselor development
- Diagnosed with an inheritable bleeding disorder or a sibling.
- Must be patients of Prisma Health HTC and/or members of the BDASC.

Cost

- Camp is provided free of cost to all campers.
- Travel assistance for families with a financial need is available for gas costs.

Counselor Opportunities

- Contact Sue Martin at 864-350-9941 or Robin Jones at the HTC for information on how to apply.
- Must pass a background check.
- Must be up-to-date on all immunizations.

Questions: Contact Sue Martin at sue.martin@bda-sc.org or 864-350-9941

Date

Camp: June 29 - July 2, 2026
Counselor Training: June 28, 2026

Venue

Camp Cole
1571 Crossing Creek Rd,
Eastover, SC 29044
(803) 849-8697
<https://www.campcole.org/>

Registration

Available in January 2026

- Spots will be filled on a first come first serve basis until full.
- Must have a recent (within 1 year) physical from PCP or HTC.
- Up to date on all immunizations.

BDASC Camp
Webpage

Register Today!

*This new camp experience is being brought to the bleeding disorders community in partnership with the Bleeding Disorders Association of South Carolina and the Prisma Health Hemostasis and Thrombosis Center of South Carolina – Midstate & Upstate.

PRISMA
HEALTHSM

BLEEDING DISORDERS
ASSOCIATION
OF SOUTH CAROLINA